

Report Date: 11th feb 2023

Report Version: v1

Prepared By: James Collins Macharia

Introduction:

This report provides a summary of the results of the testing process for this bank web application. The purpose of the testing process was to validate that the project meets the specified requirements and to identify any defects or issues that need to be addressed.

Test Objectives:

The objectives of the testing process were to:

Verify that the core business functionalities functions as intended
Validate that the project meets the specified requirements
Identify any defects or issues that need to be addressed

Scope of Testing:

The scope of the testing process included:

- Manager and Customer Login functionalities.
- Add customers as a manager
- Create a bank account for customers.
- Perform transactions (perform deposits and withdrawals)
- View transactions
- Delete customers as a Manager

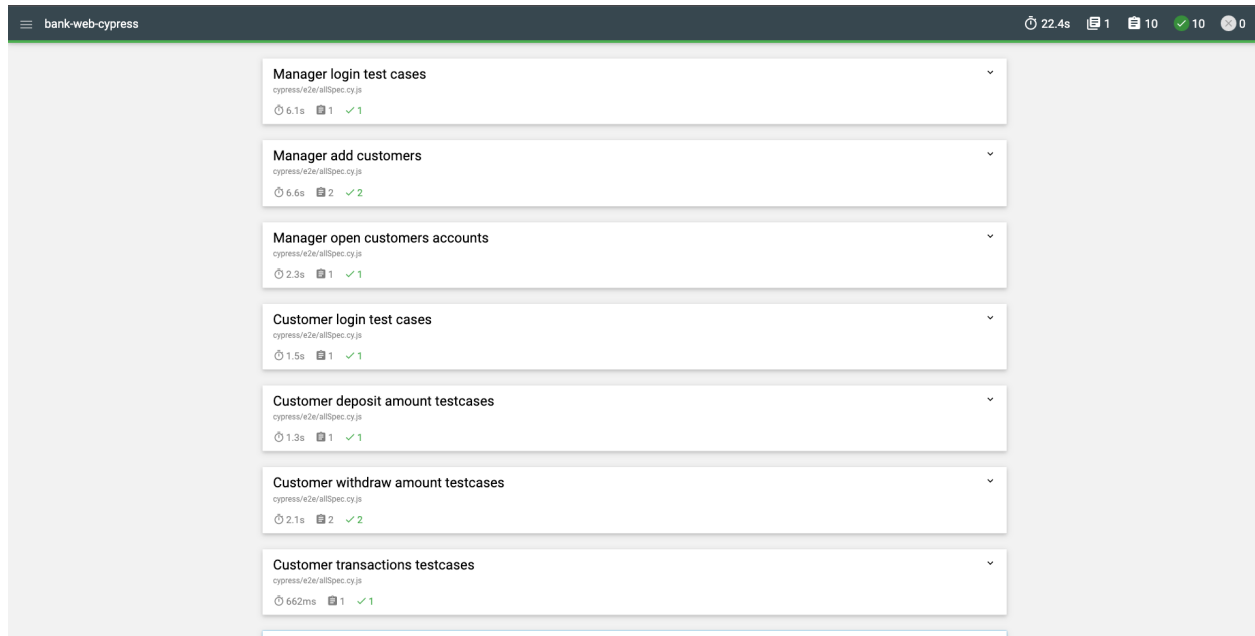

Test Environment:

The testing process was conducted in the following environment:

- www.globalsqa.com

Test Results:

A total of 10 tests were executed and all tests passed

Defects/Issues:

No defects were found during the execution of these testcases

Conclusion and Recommendation:

Based on the results of the testing process, we can conclude that the web bank project meets the specified requirements and functions as intended.

It is recommended that the following actions be taken:

Re-evaluate thebank web project with the whole team to determine if it is ready for release